IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: This bill places a three-year moratorium on building private prisons.

Effective Date: May 6, 2001 (retroactive).

Explanation of State Expenditures: The Office of the State Building Commissioner would be prohibited from permitting a private prison to be built in Indiana until May 7, 2004. This bill effectively reduces the likelihood of expanding the prison privatization program for a three-year period, thus precluding whatever fiscal impact that might be associated with privatization.
